RENT, SELL AND MANAGE PROPERTIES
IN FLORENCE AND TUSCANY

WELCOME

Summer has arrived with full hot and humid force, bringing with it the pleasures of “Zone Bianca” and permission to be outdoors without a mask (while keeping a safe distance, of course). After so much time closed and restricted, the creativity of the city is absolutely soaring and there are more events than we could possibly share in a single newsletter. Festivals are exploding across Florence, with music, dance, literature, outdoor bars and dancing erupting in the streets and along the riverbanks. The annual quest for the best beaches of summer has begun, and traffic is beginning to pile up on weekends as Florentines head to the coasts. We hope you find relief and refreshment this summer, whether in the form of salt water or this joyful return to cultural and social life, with our warmest best wishes from SUZANNE, CORSO, BEI, LESLIE, VANNI, ANNA PIA, RAFFAELLA, AND MARISA.

BEST DINING OUT: BA'GHETTO JEWISH RESTAURANT IN SANT'AMBROGIO

The latest addition to the Ba Ghetto family, this restaurant brings the experience of kosher Jewish-Romanesque and Middle Eastern cuisine to Florence. Located at Via Luigi Carlo Farini 5/r, the restaurant is opposite the beautiful Synagogue and just minutes from the city's main monuments and squares, in the centre of the lively Sant'Ambrogio district. The area has made craftsmanship and traditions its strong point. It is characterised by narrow, traffic-free streets where you can stroll, shop and browse among the various antique shops or the famous Sant'Ambrogio Market, which offers a glimpse of daily life in the Renaissance city. Here the Dabush brothers have found the right setting for Ba Ghetto cuisine, which is able to respect tradition and look to the future at the same time. The set of dietary laws of the Jewish people, probably the oldest in recorded history, is called Kasherut, which literally means 'suitable, right, appropriate' and is contained in the written Torah, the holiest Jewish book. In this restaurant you will not find milk or dairy products. See the website.

PITCHER & FLACCOMIO FAQ ON TRAVEL, BUYING, RENTING AND COVID-19

In these uncertain times during the Covid-19 pandemic, we would like to offer you a brief FAQ file regarding travel and renting in Tuscany, and what we can do to help you have a better and safer stay in your rental property.

Tuscany in general, and Florence in particular, have been relatively spared by the Covid-19 outbreak. But the lower numbers of contagions in this region have not prevented the lock downs and the travel restrictions that have been imposed. As we adjust to the new rules such as social distancing, face masks, hand sanitizers, and contact tracing, etc., that are necessary to keep us safe, we are thinking of ways to improve the interest in our Region and make the rentability of properties easier for the future.

We think one of the biggest expectations of our clients will be safety. You will expect to enter a property, whether it be for a night or a month or a year, that is not only clean but possibly also sanitized prior to being occupied. This major concern is something we are planning for so that we may offer with confidence any apartment, house or villa that Pitcher & Flaccomio represents.

You can find out more in our FAQ page.

Beautiful Lies is one of the works inspired by Dante that will be exhibited in the Sala dei Gigli of Palazzo Vecchio, chosen to give the title to the entire exhibition. Style icon and model of original and unconventional femininity, Greta Garbo linked her career to Salvatore Ferragamo, a stylist who knew how to interpret with extreme accuracy the style and personality of the great Hollywood actress. SILK, ON DISPLAY AT THE SALVATORE FERRAGAMO MUSEUM, Until April 2022

Seta' celebrates the silk prints of the Salvatore Ferragamo maison of which Fulvia Visconti Ferragamo was the creator and creative soul. Through the history of its founder and the historical archive, the Ferragamo Museum intends to express the continuous relationship between art and fashion, proposing a dialogue between tradition and modernity. The exhibition tour tells the perfect union of fanciful intuitions, and high industrial craftsmanship that is behind the production of a scarf - and any silk print - beyond the infinite inspirations that are at the origin of each design. In the first section the exhibition hosts the 'site specific' installation by Chinese artists Sun yuan & Peng Yu entitled 'Were creatures born celestial?' which exemplify conceptually what fertile ground of encounter and exchange between East and West was the Silk Route.
