BEST TRADITION: THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION, CHRISTMAS, AND SANTO STEFANO FEATURING THE DUOMO CHRISTMAS TREE AND NATIVITY SCENE,

December 8

December 8 in Italy is a national holiday that celebrates the Immaculate Conception. This day of festivity unofficially starts the countdown to Christmas as many Italian families traditionally use this day to set up and decorate their Christmas tree and Nativity scene in their homes. On December 8 in Florence's historic centre the large Christmas tree is set up in Piazza del Duomo. The lighting of the Christmas tree is accompanied by an official public ceremony with the participation of Florence's Mayor. Also in Piazza del Duomo, the impressive Nativity Scene is built in the front and left of the Cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore. The Nativity has life-sized beautiful statues made in terracotta by an artisan of Impruneta. Both the Christmas tree and the Nativity scene are up until January 6, the day of Epiphany. In the Cathedral of Florence, the traditional Christmas Eve Mass is celebrated by the Cardinal of Florence at midnight (Vigil prayers start at 11pm). On Christmas morning, the Mass is celebrated at 10:30am, in conjunction with the Pope's blessing in Rome.

Curated by Sergio Risaliti and presenting images by German artist Julia Krahn, these powerful bodies of work are on display until January 29, 2023." The exhibition is sectioned in two parts, the first, which is displayed above the outside terrace of the museum, is a series of 10 flags each wearing the portraits of Ukrainian female refugees. The 10 women in each of the photos differ in age, appearance and experience, yet all share the unfortunate common ground of being impacted by the progressing Ukrainian war. Each portrait oozes with dignity and tenacity, which has not been lost, despite surviving insurmountably difficult events. Read the full article here.

DANCE FESTIVAL: LA DEMOCRAZIA DEL CORPO BY VIRGILIO SIENI, Until December

The dancer and choreographer participate in a profound and urgent reflection, perhaps now overdue, on nature and the existing, things and soil, searching for and showing forms of political body and inhabiting gesture, a body that inhabits and a being that is still there, that contributes to the good of the city. The dance performance is offered here as a tale of journeys and returns, restancies and walks, restoring through gesture a way of practising life. This year's edition seeks dialoguing paths between artists working in a world that strongly demands that they be listened to. The guest groups and companies, national and international, bring with them research and new rituals, visions and discoveries. These researches stand as a movement of fertile ideas that carefully and complexly go to inhabit those abysmal voids that the superficiality of our times has produced. Full program here.
